

Symposium

The Future of Europe in Turbulent Times

Thursday, 16 January 2024, 17:00-20:00

Mevissensaal

50678 Köln, Claudiusstrasse 1

Increasing geopolitical tensions, climate change and rising populism is challenging Europe's role in the global economy. The Jean-Monnet Chair "Europe in the Global Economy" and the Institute of Global Business and Society invite for a symposium to debate the Future of Europe.

Speakers and Panel Discussants:

Prof. Dr. Sylvia Heuchemer, President, TH Köln

Mr. Willem Noë, EU Commission

Prof. Dr. Alojzy Z. Nowak, Rektor Warsaw University

Prof. Dr. Stefanie Kleimeier, Universität Maastricht and Open University

Prof. Dr. Harald Sander, Jean-Monnet Chair "Europe in the Global Economy"

The Symposium is followed by a networking reception.

As places are limited, participation is on invitation only. If you wish to participate and have not received an invitation, please contact harald.sander@th-koeln.de for reserving a seat.

Institute of Global Business

& Society.

Technology
Arts Sciences
TH Köln